Man Group raises US$705 million

Man Group plc, the global provider of alternative investment products and futures broker, today announces that Man Global Strategies Diversified Series 2 Ltd ('Man Global Strategies Diversified Series 2') and the UK product Close Man Hedge Fund have together raised the equivalent of over US$705 million of client money.

Man Global Strategies Diversified Series 2 raised the equivalent of over $580 million in its three currency classes, Euros, US dollars and Swiss francs while Close Man Hedge Fund raised the equivalent of over US$125 million in Pounds Sterling. Both products will invest in a range of complementary hedge fund styles that include arbitrage, directional, equity hedge, long/short equity and managed futures. Across these styles, allocations will be made to a diversified range of quantitative and qualitative hedge fund strategies implemented by leading managers.

Stanley Fink, Chief Executive of the Man Group plc, today said:

"There continues to be strong demand for Man's products that can add diversification and enhance the risk/return profile of investors' existing portfolios. Our position as a leader in the hedge fund sector enables us to deliver high-quality alternative investment content in attractive formats to a large and growing universe of investors around the world."

These products are the latest to apply the extensive knowledge and experience of the Man Global Strategies' investment committee. The portfolio construction skills of Man Global Strategies are evident from the performance of the first product in the Man Multi-Strategy family, Man Multi-Strategy Guaranteed Ltd. With a track record dating back over three years, Man Multi-Strategy Guaranteed Ltd has generated strong and steady returns over a period that has been extremely difficult for traditional assets. As at 31 May 2004, it had achieved an annualised return of 10.6% since inception on 15 July 2000. This is particularly impressive compared to the annualised performance of world stocks – 5.1% and world bonds 9.1% over the same period. Capital guarantees have been provided for Man Global Strategies Diversified Series 2 by UBS AG, London Branch, and for Close Man Hedge Fund by Royal Bank of Scotland plc. These ensure investors the return of at least 100% of their initial investment at maturity as well as a potential for either profit lock-ins or income returns.

The next global launch will be Man RMF Multi-Style Series 2 Ltd, which will be open for investment on 23 August 2004. This product will target medium-term annualised growth of around 13-15% for an annualised volatility of around 7-8% for both USD and EUR class bonds while the CHF class bonds will target annualised growth of around 12-14% for annualised volatility of around 7-8%.

Following the last guaranteed coupon payment, a discretionary annual performance-linked coupon may be paid on the income bonds.

The Close Man Hedge Fund has been designed specifically for UK investors. As well as being denominated in sterling, the Fund will offer redemption facilities at Net Asset Value every quarter and had a minimum investment of £10,000. As a closed ended investment company registered in Guernsey and listed on the Channel Islands Stock Exchange, the fund could be sold by IFAs and was eligible for inclusion in SIPPs, SSAS, PEP Transfers and ISAs. It will be capital gains assessable with the benefit of taper relief for UK investors.

Man Global Strategies also creates portfolios for banks and other institutional partners operating in local markets around the world. The products will also enjoy the benefit of capital guarantees that ensure investors the return of at least 100% of their initial investment at maturity as well as a potential for either profit lock-ins or income returns.
